Traditional Knowledge

Jacob shares his Traditional knowledge in the hopes of educating the public to issues surrounding our First Nations communities.

"I was influenced by many knowledgeable elders to help revive a culture that had been displaced in my youth. I feel it is my obligation to revive the culture by sharing this knowledge". Jacob Charles

Take the Tour

The Chippewas of Georgina Island is an intimate First Nation which is populated with a diverse culture and vigorous ecological system.

A Cultural Tour of the secluded reservation will provide knowledge of an often misleading Canadian Heritage through traditional Ojibwa teachings.

Sample of a Basic Tour Package (morning tour)

9:45am - Arrive at Georgina Island First Nation and make our way up to the Sacred Ojibwa Teaching Lodge

10:15am - Traditional Ojibwa Welcoming and introductions. - includes smudge, drumming, pipe, story telling

11:15am - The Purification Lodge, where we have a discussion of the origins and purposes of the Lodge. After our discussion we then have a Q and A.

11:30am - Sugar shack and take a look at Maple Syrup site, where we process the sap into Maple Syrup.

12:00pm - Wigwam, with explanation and brief discussion.

12:15pm - Return to Lodge, final Q & A.

12:30pm - Close with Ojibwa hand drum and traditional Ojibwa give-away.

1:00 - Make way back to Marina for departure.
